

Electrician Resume Sample 1

William J. Galaz

3921 Aviation Way, Los Angeles, California

william.galaz@email.com

(213) 972 4473

A. Summary

After 7 years of experience as an electrician working for different employers and companies, my abilities to perform the tasks related to my job have improved considerably. In-depth knowledge of the recent developments, techniques, and new equipment in my work field. Up to date with the newest technologies surrounding electric equipment and components.

B. Working Experience

September/2012 – Present – Los Angeles County Human Resources – Los Angeles, California

Responsibilities:

- In charge of routine maintenance and installation of different electrical systems that belong to the company;
- Handle other duties related to the Electrical department;
- Repair electrical components or systems that need to be fixed;
- Perform daily inspections of the equipment that belongs to the facility;
- Handle operational aspects including preventive maintenance and regular inspections;
- Troubleshoot and rebuild different electrical systems;
- Fix things in a timely fashion;
- Keep up with the latest technologies and inventions in order to evolve in this work field.

Achievements:

- Managed a team of workers, and taught them different things in order to maximize time and profit by training workers into becoming competent electricians;
- Fixed a lot of electrical components and equipment, becoming electrician of the month.

October/2009 – September/2012 – OUTFRONT Media – Los Angeles, California

Responsibilities:

- Installation of different wiring equipment and systems;
- Handle lighting fixtures;

- Identify and quickly fix any electrical problem;
- Report any change to the Electrical department;
- Identify unsafe conditions and report them to the person who's in charge;
- Minimize waste of material by correctly identifying the electrical issue;
- Use preventive maintenance in order to create a safe work environment for everybody on the premises.

Achievements:

- Learned all the local and state building regulations that were created using the guidelines found in the National Electric Code.

C. Education and Academic Training

Pasadena Unified School District, Los Angeles, California, 2008.

D. Job Related Skills

- Inspect electrical components
- Perform regular maintenance work, and check for the company's or employer's equipment
- Know how to read blueprints
- Ability to handle different lighting and wiring systems
- Know how to handle and work with technical diagrams
- Work with many electrical components (circuit breakers, transformers etc.)
- Use testing devices for safety and electronic reasons
- Capacity to quickly identify electrical problems
- Problem solving skills that are used in order to identify an electrical problem, and fix it using power and hand tools
- Great communication skills used to explain to workers how to install, repair, or maintain different electrical components, wiring, or equipment
- Technical and functional skills polished during 7 years of work in this field

E. General Skills

- Proficiency in Office Pack
- Basic knowledge of different technical issues that one might encounter when using a computer
- Proficient in Spanish