A. Summary

Primarily a film and television actress. Have been acting since the age of 8, when I starred in the television version of "Annie Get Your Gun" as an 11-year-old Annie Oakley. Have performed in musical theater, weekly television series, and a variety of commercials. Have specialized in comedy and light-hearted fare, but got nominated for a Golden Globe for my dramatic portrayal of a struggling country singer in 2010. Currently seeking to increase the number of dramatic roles in my repertoire.

B. Working Experience

August/2016 - April/2018 – Incredible Things My Mother Says, New York, New York

Responsibilities:

- Performed as the lead actress in this NBC television show
- Role required me to portray twins, sometimes in the same scene
- Required to perfect comedic timing in order to keep up with the "funny and quirky" theme of the show
- Frequently required to work around the complicated scheduling requirements of the child actors

Achievements:

- Nominated for a Golden Globe and an Emmy Award for my portrayal of the lead character
- Directed two episodes in the first season and five episodes in the second season

January/2012 - April/2012 – Annie Get Your Gun Reunion: Twenty Years Later, Hollywood, California

Responsibilities:

- Reprised role as Annie Oakley that I first played as a child actor, only this time as an adult version
- Show ran as a weekly limited mini-series on HBO for four months

- Required to drastically change the tone of the original television version from a light comedy to an adult drama appropriate for most of HBO's audience.

Achievements:

- Nominated for a Golden Globe and a Critic's Choice Award
- Performed Acting Coach duties for the younger cast members

C. Education and Academic Training

Bachelor of Arts in English, Yale University, 2006

D. Job Related Skills

- Classical and contemporary dancing skills, including tap dance
- Vocal abilities as a soprano
- Skilled in multiple European and American accents
- Can play both comedy and dramatic roles
- Have directing experience

E. General Skills

- Speak the following languages fluently: English, Spanish, French, and German
- Ability to operate the following vehicles: manual automobiles and motorcycles
- Athletically fit and possess a thorough understanding of the following physical activities: volleyball, softball, and cheerleading
