A. Summary

I am a professional history teacher with a degree in comparative anthropology. Throughout junior high, high school, and college, I represented my school as a basketball player. During several seasons, I ascended to the rank of team captain. My teammates always considered me a central figure in the development of our team's style and personality. I am hoping for an opportunity to give young athletes the same experiences I had in my youth, and I believe I can do that at your school.
