A. Summary

I am a professional girls basketball coach with a master's degree in athletic coaching. All my life, I have been playing, coaching, and officiating basketball games. I have led several teams to appearances in state finals — and I have collected one championship title as a high school coach. I am hoping for an opportunity to bring my championship-level coaching to the college stage. With my experience and education, I have what it takes to bring a talented team to the next level.

B. Working Experience

August/2013 - December/2017 — Scott F. Fitzgerald High School, Seratosa, New Mexico

Responsibilities:

- Gym teacher and personal trainer for students with special needs
- Creating lesson plans and planning activities for students
- Coaching girls basketball of various age groups

Achievements:

- Maintained an enthused and active gym class
- Led my girls basketball team to a state championship (and two other appearances in the state finals)
- Achieved tenure in the shortest possible time

January/2009 - August/2013 — Beacon Valley High School, Sun Ridge, New Mexico

Responsibilities:

- Gym teacher and student gym teacher
- Spectated class sessions to develop my teaching skill — and then implemented what I learned
