Dear Mrs. Coleson,

I noticed your job advertisement on Indeed.com, and I felt compelled to apply for the position of Junior Interior Designer at Simple Design Solutions. I have over 6 years of experience in retail and home improvement, and I have a lot of value to bring to the world of interior design. Customers in my previous workplaces have always told me I have an eye for residential planning.

I am currently a project manager at Home Improvement Superstores. I believe there are many similarities between my job and that of a full-time interior designer. For example, I must make project designs within my customers' budgets, organize construction teams to carry out building projects, and maintain a high level of customer service with all of my clients.

I can't pinpoint a single workplace achievement that I'm most proud of, but I am instead proud of the many positive customer reviews I've acquired while working at Home Improvement Superstores. In fact, jobs that I am in charge of have nearly a 75 percent chance of earning our store a 5-star review on Google My Business. To an independent firm like Simple Design Solutions, I believe those review rates could make a huge difference in company profit margins.

What I lack in formal art education, I make up for in work ethic, industry know-how, and interpersonal abilities. I started working straight out of high school and I haven't looked back since. Without question, my strongest skill is my tenacity and my pure dedication to completing the projects that I begin. I am experienced in project design, organizing projects and teams, and communicating with customers.

Overall, I know that I am an ideal candidate for the position of Junior Interior Designer at Simple Design Solutions. My work ethic is what carries me through my professional life. Also, my specialty in acquiring very positive reviews is something that can start benefiting Simple Design Solutions right away. Thank you for your consideration, and I hope to meet with you soon to further discuss my qualifications.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Sanderson
